FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DYNAMIC RECYCLING CEO HARTER AND PRESIDENT GREENO HONORED AS WISCONSIN SMALL BUSINESS PERSONS OF THE YEAR

Company also Recognized as Wisconsin's Top Small Business by U.S. Small Business Administration

ONALASKA, WIS. (March 19, 2018) – Dynamic Recycling, a leading provider of electronics recycling, IT asset disposition, data security, scrap purchasing, and for-hire logistics services, today announced that CEO Miles Harter and President Curt Greeno have been jointly selected as “Wisconsin Small Business Persons of the Year.” They will be honored by Administrator Linda McMahon, the head of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), during National Small Business Week, April 29 – May 5, 2018.

Harter and Greeno will join the winners from the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico at ceremonies in Washington, D.C., on April 29-30, 2018 to receive their award. They are also in the running for the “2018 National Small Business Person of the Year.” Additionally, Dynamic Recycling will be honored at Wisconsin’s 33rd annual Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE)/SBA Awards Breakfast on May 4, 2018 at the Marriott Milwaukee West in Waukesha, Wis.

Eric Ness, Wisconsin’s SBA district director, commented, “Dynamic Recycling represents the best of Wisconsin’s 445,000 small businesses. Through their innovation, growth using SBA financing, and community services, Miles Harter and Curt Greeno are contributing to their community as well as the economy. I congratulate them and look forward to celebrating their success during National Small Business Week.”

Miles Harter, Dynamic Recycling CEO, emphasized that the credit for this award truly belongs to the organization as a whole. “I thank God for our incredible Dynamic Recycling team members, my family, and all the positive support we have received. Curt Greeno and I are honored to have the opportunity to serve and make a difference both within our community and around the world.”

Partially owned by Harter and Greeno, Dynamic Recycling was founded 11 years ago on a culture of integrity, excellence through innovation, self-discipline, service, humility, and fun. It has grown from a 4,400-square-foot facility in La Crosse, Wis. to now occupy over 335,000 square feet across three locations, with over 200 employees. The company is also adding a 140,000 square-foot expansion to its Onalaska, Wis. headquarters in the spring of 2018, expected to add an additional 150 jobs.

“There are so many great businesses out there, and to be considered the top in Wisconsin is humbling,” adds Dynamic Recycling President Curt Greeno. “This is really a credit to the amazing team members at Dynamic. It is their hard work every day and their commitment to living our values and serving our customer that made this possible. This is a great achievement for our team.”
